inspiration at work

Senses

We experience our everyday life defined by our senses. And in this 21st century, we spend more time in our workplaces than we would like to admit. These two elements combined are the inspirations behind the 'Senses'. It is meticulously designed to fit your lifestyle in the workplace by satisfying all your major senses. From the intriguing curve of the backrest, the touch of cool aluminium, the precise sound of the seat mechanism and the modern feel of the mesh seats, it imparts a lasting impression on all your senses.

Define your PERCEPTION

DESIGNED TO FIT YOUR LIFESTYLE

'Senses' will give a whole new meaning to space in any of your work-place rooms. The concept of the 'Senses' has a lot to offer and you will have the satisfaction of responding to it through individual perceptions. Treat your clients to a touch of elegance by having the 'Senses' in your conference rooms or allow your employees to have the freedom to express their individuality. Anything is possible through a change of perception.

INSPIRE YOUR WORKPLACE

'Senses' is designed to fit in with the evolving workplace environment of today. It strives to be a total balance of aesthetics and functionality. It emphasizes on a stylish modern outlook while integrating ergonomic support and comfort. Define your style with the ultra sleek aluminium accents and announce your identity with a wide choice of colours for the mesh backrest. It is your choice to define and adapt the 'Senses' to your personal preference. It is what you want it to be.

Perfection of form and function

The design exhibits your individuality and character without being obtrusive. It is convincing from any perspective and adds a touch of perfection to any room. Combine all the distinctive design elements with the wide choices of colours or materials, and you would truly have a chair you can call your own. It is a definite design which speaks for itself.

THE CURVE, THE SLEEK FINISH AND EVERYTHING IN BETWEEN...

Beyond the aesthetics

THE BOLTS AND NUTS

There is a lot to discover about the 'Senses'. It doesn't only look good but functions brilliantly. Every functional part of the chair is completely synchronized. From the adjustable headrest right to the sliding mechanism of the seat and the adjustable arm rests, everything is designed to achieve the most flexible sitting position. Plus, there is the lumbar support device which allows optimum support for the spine. All these functions combined to allow you total comfort and higher work productivity.

Straighten the backrest for optimum focus or just slide the seat forward for extra comfort. With a built in multi positional locking system 'Senses' ensures the user absolute comfort and conformity no matter what posture is adopted. Experience total control over your preferred comfort level with 'Senses'.

At your fingertips...

Control your seat depth position with a pull of a lever.

Adjust your seat incline position with a lift of a lever.

For the extra luxury of comfort, the headrest is adjustable vertically and horizontally (front to back).

'Senses' features a height adjustable lumbar support system that allows the user to adjust the level of support and maintain a constant contact with the lower back to ensure better seating posture and support.

With a simple pull of a switch, armrests can be adjusted to suit your posture.

To relieve fatigue, height of the armrests can be adjusted independently.

Unrestricted flexibility. The armrests can be rotated up to a 15 degree angle and slide up and down to accommodate individual preferences.

Backrest support tension can also be easily adjusted with a simple twist of a knob

'Senses' conjures a total feeling of ease, comfort and control. Every component and function has been condensed to the importance of getting the work done. Tweak the fully adjustable support mechanism seat height with a slight push of your fingers for maximum productivity or relax your body against the seat design which is created to 'mold' itself to your body contour.

With 'Senses', every design factor has a functionality.

Customizable Sophistication

It's all about individual choices. Unleash your creativity with a bright fabric or go for an elegant finish with plush leather. Or why not go for a combination of them both!

Cool aluminium accents which adds a touch of flair to any room. Available in 3 different finishes - Nickel Chrome, Polish and Epoxy Silver/Black.
